

Learn to Musky Fish Workshop
hosted by the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

Friday, August 10, 2018 – Boulder Junction Community Center

Welcome - 8:00am

Musky Biology - 8:30am-9am, Steve Gilbert

Musky Management - 9am-9:30am, Steve Gilbert

Break

Musky Propagation - 9:45am-10:15am, Thomas Lorenzen

Basic Musky Fishing Techniques - 10:15am-11:15am, Zachary Lawson

Break

Musky Fishing Information and Group Discussion - 11:15am-12pm

*Anyone is welcome to attend the morning classroom portion without any advance registration.

Afternoon

Individuals who have registered in advance and are selected to fish with a mentor will be provided a lunch and spend the afternoon on the water. Little or no musky fishing experience preferred for afternoon fishing. Maximum 12-15 participants will be accepted.

For more information or to register, contact:

Warden Kelly Crotty (715) 528-4400 ext. 111

Warden Brad Dahlquist (715) 478-5610

This is NO CHARGE for the workshop, lunch or afternoon fishing.