A Brief History

The Milwaukee Road railroad tracks first reached the area in 1903, but it was December 1905 before the name “Boulder Junction” first appeared in the Chicago/Milwaukee & St. Paul railway timetable. Immediately, hunters and anglers began visiting the area and camping on several nearby lakes.

Prior to the 1903 arrival of the railroad, getting to the area involved renting a team of horses in Woodruff, followed by an arduous, all-day wagon ride. A far cry from today’s 20-mile drive up Hwy. 51 and Cty. M!

The first downtown structure was Paquette’s Hotel & Saloon, built in 1911. Tourism and logging grew side-by-side, sharing the life-line that the railroad provided. Among the first resorts to be opened were Coon’s on Trout Lake; McKinley on Wolf Lake (now part of the private Dairyman’s Country Club); and Rabbit’s Foot Resort on Boulder Lake (now Camp Manito-wish YMCA).

Among the first structures built by the railroad

Arbor Vitae. In those days, the town hall performed multiple functions – it was a school midweek, a dance hall on Saturday nights and a church on Sunday.

In 1933 the state of Wisconsin began a vigorous re-afforestation program, through the formation of the Civilian Conservation Corps. Thanks to the CCC’s establishment of seedling production, planting greatly intensified. The forests would soon return, in stark contrast to the 1910 landscape which was nearly denuded of trees by the logging operations conducted between the 1890s and 1910. As the forest grew, so too, would tourism.

were a small depot, a coal shed, and a house for the section foreman and his family. Today’s wide Main Street is a result of the rail buildings, lines, spurs and sidings.

Phone service came to Boulder Junction in 1925 and electricity came to the town in 1930. Unfortunately, the previous busy railroad operation slowed considerably in 1931, and the last train pulled out of Boulder Junction in 1932.

Boulder Junction was officially incorporated as a town in March 1927, when it separated from

As the Official Musky Capital of the World[®]

... Drop a Line, Hook a Memory

Boulder Junction has long been noted for its excellent musky fishing. With 194 lakes within 9 miles of town, we pride ourselves on offering some of the best fishing opportunities in the State of Wisconsin. Through the efforts of anglers, our lakes will continue to produce trophy fish and will allow future generations to experience the thrill of hooking a "Big One." Whether you are a hard-core musky angler or an aspiring bass master; a fly-fishing trout angler or a parent taking kids out for their first fishing adventure, we're confident you'll be impressed by the Boulder Junction fishing experience. FISH OF BOULDER JUNCTION

NORTHERN PIKE

Pike attain lengths of as much as 50 inches and the record Wisconsin fish weighed 38 pounds.

WALLEYE

The largest member of the perch family grows to lengths over 30 inches and the record Wisconsin fish weighs 18 pounds caught in High Lake.

LARGEMOUTH BASS

This largemouth grows to a weight of 11 pounds and a length of about 24 inches.

SMALLMOUTH BASS

An average smallmouth weighs between 1 and 2 pounds and will measure about 12 inches and is considered the scrappiest fish of all.

BROOK TROUT

Boulder Junction—The Musky Capital of the World[®]

Back in the 1930s, a Chicago-based sportswriter who regularly vacationed in the Boulder Junction area, coined the phrase, “Musky Capital of the World” to describe his favorite fishing destination. Local resorts picked up on the idea and over the course of the next 11 or 12 years, used the term intermittently on their promotional literature.

In 1942, the newly-formed Chamber of Commerce began using the title on all of its brochures and other printed matter and it has done so ever since.

June 8, 1971, the United States Patent Office awarded Boulder Junction the U.S. Trademark for the MUSKY CAPITAL OF THE WORLD. This trademark was awarded by virtue of the fact that more muskies are caught on our lakes every year than any other similar sized area in the world.

Seeing the town lit up during Christmas Walk? These events would not be possible without Chamber members and “friends.” In many of our endeavors, the Chamber is fortunate to be able to draw on the skills and experiences of some pretty remarkable people – our “friends of the chamber.” Some are locals, some are part-time residents, while others are visitors, but they all share one thing in common – a love of the Boulder Junction area! Why not join us, Call 715-385-2400 or contact us at P.O. Box 286, Boulder Junction, WI 54512 and we’d be happy to have you join our “circle of friends.”
